I preached to Richard Duah recently. I saw him sitting under a tree together with his two friends, Kwaku and Kwesi. I preached to them and they trusted Christ. Richard came to church the next day and was baptized that very Sunday. I have started a hospital ministry. Last Friday, I went to Pramso Hospital to the men's ward, from 7 a.m. until 12 noon. I was able to speak to 12 people and they all put their faith in Christ. Also, I prayed with them while they laid in bed. They were all happy to be saved. One of my members who is growing in the Lord is Gideon. He has learned to be a good soul winner and a teacher. He is now teaching the Sunday school children. Please pray for good health for my family, more workers, and for church growth both numerical and spiritual.
