Two weeks ago, I met Boakyie Boateng, his wife, and their three-month-old baby in their house in Esreso. They gave me a warm welcome. As they gladly received the message, Boakyie and his wife trusted Jesus as the only Saviour. Fortunately, they did not belong to any church. I invited them to our church, and they came! I prayed with them and committed the child to God. Pray they will come again.

Kofi Oppong is growing in the Lord. He has been in church for two months but very active. He has been coming Sunday mornings to Sunday school and to the main service; he has also been attending our soul-winning meeting. I hope he will be a very active soul winner in the future.

Pray for good health for my family and for more visitors.
