Every morning when I spend time with God, I thank Him for you and for others like you, who not only pray for us, but also help us with work. Brethren, if you continue to have the desire to contribute to His work, keep moving forward. I want to thank you for the personal help that you send. Thank you for your prayers because even with all the gold and silver in the world, it's nothing if God is not at the center of it all. Thank you for your prayers, ministries, and your desire to help. God bless you.
