Beloved brothers, thank you first of all to our God and likewise also to you for such a great ministry and for your support which is a great blessing. We are always praying to Him to continue prospering in everything. We were able to hold the youth conference where several made the decision to surrender their lives to the work of God. I also want to tell you that we were blessed and privileged to share with you the gospel to 26 people of whom God blessed us with 6 saved souls! I also want to thank you for your prayers for the youth conference and also for the Lord to open doors to dedicate me full time to the work.
