Beloved brothers, it is a privilege for me to greet you, wishing you blessings and success for your life, family and ministry. First of all, I want to thank God and you for taking me into account by giving me the financial support I received. Know that it is a blessing. Throughout the year we have been participants of the blessings working in the Lord's work; having a number of seven baptisms, of the many people who have received our Lord Jesus Christ through the personal evangelism that we carry out every Saturday. We had a recent activity, the Bible Vacation School, teaching the blessed Word of God to more than seventy-five children during four consecutive days, of which ten were saved. I am again grateful for your support, begging you, at the same time, prayers for my family, the ministry and for God to allow me to dedicate myself full time to the work. Blessings, Pastor Jorge Rosales. "... knowing that your work in the Lord is not in vain." 1 Corinthians 15:58
