I met a lady and her name is Maria, if you would pray for her. We have started bible studies in her home, she is learning the gospel but has not yet received Christ as her Savior. Together with one of my friends, we went far away to another region to preach the Gospel. As we were there, at the first house, we started to share the Gospel with a lady. For the first few minutes she was very polite and wanted to hear the Gospel, but suddenly her husband came in and started to shout and said "get out of here". He was very aggressive and didn't want to hear us at all. We had to leave his house. Then we went to other houses and people reacted the same way, so we had to leave that village and went out to other place. When we went to the other place 7 people gathered around us and were willing to hear more and more about Jesus. So, I got really good experience from that village. Praise God. My family is doing good, we are healthy and just waiting to have baby. We are concerned about it, but God is good and we trust Him. May God bless you. Thank you for supporting us in ministry.
