Dear Brothers, I thank God for the people God has given us to serve here in the city of Duaca. They are very diligent and helpful, with a great desire to learn and serve the community. We do everything together. We all clean together, plan together and after much prayer we go out to evangelize and disciple. We appreciate your prayers for each one of them. In November our anniversary comes and we have been evangelizing for three weeks and inviting several sectors. We call it "one more for Christ." Each believer will take care of a special guest, a neighbor, a relative, to bring him as a guest. This month of October and November is to promote discipleship. After much prayer each brother and sister choses a person to disciple and on November 25, we will have a family service incorporating the new believers, to be presented, and rejoice in the new believers in how their spiritual progress is going. We will be listening to their testimony. I ask for your prayers, we are praying for a place bigger to rent for our Anniversary celebration. Because the house that is lent to us to have the services does not fit even one more person. It's full and we need a bigger place to celebrate our anniversary. God bless you for your prayers and kindness with us, we love you Pastor Argenis yopez City of Duaca.
